BARKER'S BYTES...

I want to share with you today how patient endurance, hospitality and genuine thoughtfulness reaps rewards for the Kingdom of God. Sunday we had two gentlemen who came to our worship services. The first was a young man who came to the 8:15 service and afterwards spoke with me about his experience in worship that day. He commented on the friendliness, warmth and welcoming atmosphere and wants to become involved and part of our church family. He attended Sunday School and stayed to experience the 10:30 service as well

The second gentleman came to the 10:30 worship and afterwards he shared with me how welcoming and friendly the congregants were to him as he entered and as he worshiped. He was moved by our service and wants to come back to worship with us again.

I along with others have talked many times about first impressions on visitors and being the F.A.C.E. of Jesus as we greet people, sit with them in worship, invite them to Sunday School and other events within the life of the church. When you do those hospitable things with others, regardless how a person may look or dress you are the F.A.C.E. of Jesus. When we become the F.A.C.E. of Jesus it gives God an opportunity to work with, on and for other people who are searching for a spiritual connection. Yesterday God used several of you as the F.A.C.E. of His Son. Thanks for hearing His call.

Camp registration is open now! Get your camp information just outside the church office. Find the camp that works for you and get your information turned into the church office soon. Registrations are due in our office April 10th to avoid late fees, but don't wait until the last minute--do it today. How to register for camp:

- Pick a camp and invite a friend to join you.
- Fill out your registration form and the health history form.
- Dig out your immunization records and attach a copy.
- Make a copy of your health insurance card front and back.
- Write a check to First Christian Church for half of your camp fee (FCC will pay the other half as long as funds are available).

Remember we need adults to volunteer to spend time at camp this summer too. -Mariah
